DRESS CODE PROCEDURES/POLICY

1. The C.E. Rose Pre-K-8 uniform dress code was phased-in over a two-week introductory period, which began on the first day of school, August 15, 2005.
2. Parent contact will be made for students who fail to comply with the Uniform Dress Policy and student may be asked to do any of the following depending upon the specific circumstances:
 - Turn inappropriate clothing inside out.
 - Change into clothing that may be provided by the school or clothing bank.
 - Change into other clothing which has been brought to school.
 - Remove the jewelry or other accessory.
3. The Principal shall have the right, at any time, to exempt a student from wearing the required uniform at school because of extenuating circumstances, if requested in writing by the student's parent or guardian. Extenuating circumstances are limited to religious beliefs or medical/disability conditions that are substantially affected by the uniform requirement.
4. The Principal and school staff will offer assistance to families of limited means that cannot afford school uniforms. Such assistance may include referral to the TUSD Clothing Bank, or thrift and second-hand clothing stores. Parents are encouraged to donate used or outgrown uniforms to the Rose Health Office.
